

Eligibility requirements for military personnel

Ministry of Defence personnel will be prioritised for Shared Ownership schemes where:

- they have completed their basic (phase 1) training and they are one of the following:
 - Regular service personnel (including Navy, Army and Air Force)
 - Clinical staff (with the exception of doctors and dentists)
 - Ministry of Defence Police Officers
 - Uniformed staff in the Defence Fire Service
- they are ex-regular service personnel who have served in the Armed Forces for a minimum of six years, and can produce a Discharge Certificate (or similar documentation) as proof, where they apply within two years (24 months) of the date of discharge from service, or
- they are the surviving partners of regular service personnel who have died in service, where they apply within two years (24 months) of the date of being bereaved. Please find further guidance about surviving partners in the MOD surviving partners guidance.

There is a Forces Help to Buy scheme which allows qualifying service personnel to borrow up to half their annual salary by way of an advance. This scheme is administered by the Ministry of Defence with more information to be found on the Forces Help to Buy website.

Please be aware that as part of the application sign-off process you will be required to submit evidence to support your application. Please ask your sales advisor if you have any questions.
